

9th Battalion The Royal Queensland Regiment

STOP PRESS: 9 RQR is on Facebook!

We have improved our communications this year with weekly e-mails, weekly newsletters, noticeboards, texts, Australia's best Battalion magazine and the Battalion website. In an attempt to keep pace with our people, 9 RQR now wants fans on Facebook. On Facebook, simply search for 9 RQR. Commonsense is to be used as to what is posted but full advantage can be taken with this facility

The screenshot shows a Facebook page for '9 RQR MEDIC - QAS PARAMEDIC OF THE YEAR 2009'. The page features the 9 RQR crest, a post about the award, and user comments. The browser window shows the URL 'http://www.facebook.com/pages/9-RQR/150153191560?ref=mf' and the Windows taskbar at the bottom.

9 RQR MEDIC - QAS PARAMEDIC OF THE YEAR 2009. The Queensland Ambulance Service has acknowledged its top performer awarding the 2009 Paramedic of the Year to Private Matthew Meister from Admin Coy. The award is selected by paramedic peers and the QAS executive for the outstanding achievements of an individual who goes beyond the call of duty within their community. A sensational effort Matthew. Your Battalion stands proud. on Thursday

9 RQR MEDIC - QAS PARAMEDIC OF THE YEAR 2009. The Queensland Ambulance Service has acknowledged its top performer awarding the 2009 Paramedic of the Year to Private Matthew Meister from Admin Coy. The award is selected by paramedic peers and the QAS executive...Read More

Fri at 9:48am · Comment · Like

2 people like this.

Kern, [Name] is extremely proud of his achievement and truly honoured to have Matt in my platoon.
Sat at 10:53pm · Report

Gra, [Name] Well done Matthew! Paramedic of the Year is quite an achievement, particularly as the QAS is the fourth largest ambulance service in the world. Lets not forget that the first civilian ambulance service was created here in Brisbane. Queenslanders should be proud. Bn XO.

EVERY SOLDIER COMMITTED TO CONTINUOUS LEARNING AND SELF DEVELOPMENT